Ahmedabad, May 28

Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide Inc on Tuesday announced the opening of two hotels in Ahmedabad simultaneously under different brands, and said the multinational hospitality major is looking at Tier II and III towns and cities across India for expansion.

While Aloft, its new 5-Star hotel, is Starwood's fifth in India under this brand, the other one,

Four Points By Sheraton, is a conversion from an existing hotel and will be the Group's first one to be managed under this brand in India, said Brian McGuinness, Senior Vice-President, Specialty Select Brands, Starwood.

INVESTMENT

Aloft Ahmedabad, set up with an investment of Rs 120 crore, has 176 rooms.

Globally, the Aloft brand has 60 hotels in 10 countries.
